Link Aviation Elevates Procurement Excellence Through Partnership With Esker

Derby, UK — December 7, 2023 — Esker, a global cloud platform and leader in AI-driven process automation solutions for Finance, Procurement and Customer Service functions, today announced a strategic partnership with Link Aviation to transform Source-to-Pay processes for the aviation industry around the globe.

The partnership will enable Link to integrate Esker's innovative software into its existing services, and to resell the solutions to its broad network in the aviation industry.

“At Link, one of our core services is to drive efficiency and savings through Source-to-Pay transformation projects. Esker's extensive solutions, including Accounts Payable automation, will enable us to widen the scope of digital tools available to our clients.”

Gary Langhorn, Managing Director, Link Aviation

“Esker is already established within the aviation industry with clients including Malaysian Airlines, Air Asia and Montreal International Airport. Our partnership with Link Aviation will enable us to grow our presence within this arena driving increased productivity and enhanced visibility for these businesses.”

Alistair Nicholas, Managing Director, Esker Northern Europe
